Russian Federation: “We, the Russian Federation, support the eastern African region to become more stable and improve their infrastructure without receiving financial aid.”

Colombia: “We share the opinion to provide non-armed help in order to stabilize their institutions and economic situation. Furthermore we would like to help establishing democracy.”

United States of America: “Our main interest is a democratization of the countries. We are ready to support the countries financially to reach this goal.”

Human Rights Watch: “We challenge the honorable delegates and the distinguished chair to maintain human rights and to support the cause of human rights for all.
