

[griech. Orig. ??) Eunapius: The Lyves Of Philosophers and Orateurs. London: Richard lohnes 1579. [Internetquelle] (Eunapius, ca. 345-ca. 420; Übers. aus dem Lat.; Übers. ins Lateinische durch Hadrianus Iunius Hornanus 1568)

Table of Contents

[No page references]

To the right Honorable, Sir Tho|mas Bromley, Knight, one of the Queenes Maiesties most Honourable priuie Counsel, and Lorde Chaun|cellour of England.

The Epistle of Adrianus Iunius, to the Queenes Maiestye.
A Verse called Acrostichis. To the Queenes Maiestie, By the Author.

Hadrianus Iunius of Harlem, D. in Physicke, to the gentle Reader.

An Ogdoasticon, that is, eight Greeke Uersies. Written by Gerarde Phalce|purgie of Nimega, touching Eunaplus, and his Craustatour Hadrianus Iunius.

The life of Eunapius, chiefly gathered out of his owne writings.

The liues of excellent Philosophers and worthy Oratours. Written in Greeke by Eunapius of Lydia. &c.

Who they be that haue writtenuof Philosophers lyues.

Plotinus.

Porphyrius.

Jamblicus.

Aedesius.

Maximus.

Priscus.

Iulianus.

Proaeresius.

Epiphanius.

Diophantus.

Sopolis.

Himerius.

Parnasius.

Libanius.

Acacius.

Nymphidianus.

Zenon.

Magnus.

Oribasius.

Ionicus.

Chrysanthius.

Epigonus and Beronitianus.

To the gentle Reader, Hadrianus Iunius.

A Table of all the notable names, and principall matters, contayned in this worke.