

San Rafael Public Library

1100 E Street

San Rafael, CA 94901

W. T. JONES

California Institute of Technology

The Twentieth Century to Wittgenstein and Sartre

SECOND EDITION, REVISED

A History of Western Philosophy

Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, Inc.

NEW YORK CHICAGO SAN FRANCISCO ATLANTA

Contents

vii Preface

xix Introduction

1

1 The World We Live In

1 Four Ariadnian Threads Through a Labyrinth
8 The Kantian Paradigm

2

15 Three Philosophies of Process:
Bergson, Dewey, and Whitehead

17 Bergson

19	Limitations of Conceptual Knowledge
20	The Nature of Reality
24	The Evolution of Intellect
26	Intellect and Action
29	The Two Sources of Morality and Religion
31	Mysticism, Asceticism, and a Universal Society
32	Bergson and the Spirit of the Age
34	Dewey
37	Concept of Human Nature
39	Theory of Education
41	Democracy
42	Attitude Toward Metaphysics
45	The Nature of Reality: "Experience"
56	The Nature of Value
64	Whitehead
65	The Function of Philosophy
71	Criticism of the Dominant Philosophical Scheme
76	Whitehead's New Categoreal Scheme
78	Applications of the Categoreal Scheme
81	Whitehead's Account of Value
85	Religion

3

88 Moore and the Revival of Realism

88	The Analytical Tradition
93	Moore and Analysis
102	Realism
115	Ethics
127	Moore's Influence

4

129 Frege and the Revolution in Logic

130	Aristotelian Logic and Its Critics
135	Frege on the Nature of Number

140	Ordinary Language and Formalized Language
148	Sense and Reference
150	Sense and Color
151	Truth Conditions
153	Summary

5

155 Russell

155	Russell and Moore
158	Russell's Program
160	Logical Analysis
172	Philosophy as Criticism
176	Philosophy as Synthesis
191	Ethics
197	Religion

6

200 The *Tractatus

201	The Basic Orientation
202	What Can Be Said About the World
204	Logical and Pictorial Form
207	The A Priori: Logic and Mathematics
210	Natural Science
213	Philosophy
216	The Mystical

7

218 Logical Positivism

218	The Vienna Circle
220	The Verifiability Principle
222	Logical Construction
223	The Unity of Science
224	How the Positivists Read the Tractatus
225	What Do the Elucidations Elucidate?

234	The Shift Toward Linguistic Analysis
241	Noncognitivism in Ethics and Religion
245	Verifiability Again
249	The End of Positivism

8

250 Husserl and the Phenomenological Tradition

250	The Phenomenological Tradition
254	Husserl and the Quest for Certainty
256	Criticism of Relativism
258	The Crisis of European Man
263	The Phenomenological Method
275	Phenomenology: The Science of Being
282	Husserl's Influence

9

285 Heidegger

285	Heidegger and the Phenomenological Tradition
289	The Question of Being
293	Human Being in a Human "World"
307	The Human Predicament
317	From the Ontical to the Ontological
320	The Call of Being

10

332 Sartre

335	The Human Condition
344	Consciousness and Consciousness of Self
351	Sartre's Ontology
355	Freedom and Action
361	Sartre and Marxism

11

364	The Later Wittgenstein
367	The Nature of Language
374	Universals and Family Resemblance
377	The Question of Precision
381	Critique of Logical Atomism
387	Examples of How Philosophical Problems Are Dissolved
392	Wittgenstein and Husserl
394	Wittgenstein and Heidegger
395	Wittgenstein's Place in Twentieth-Century Philosophy
401	Notes
415	Suggestions for Further Reading
421	Glossary
427	Index