

B
74
.R78

A HISTORY OF ANCIENT AND MEDIAEVAL PHILOSOPHY

BY
U. Roop
HERVIN U. ROOP, Ph.D., LL.D.

Head, Department of Philosophy and Education and

Dean, School of Education

WHEATON COLLEGE

Author: General Psychology; Christian Ethics; Educational Psychology; Essential Facts in Natural and Revealed Religion; Problems in Student Orientation; Studies in the Philosophy of Religion; Studies in the Philosophy of Education; Studies in the Psychology and Treatment of Exceptional Children; Studies in the Psychology of Religious Development; A History of Modern Philosophy.

Copyright 1927
HERVIN U. ROOP

Printed and Mimeographed by
EDWARDS BROTHERS
ANN ARBOR, MICH.

CONTENTS

PART ONE: INTRODUCTORY.

- Lesson 1. Philosophy: Its Meaning, Function, and Problems.
2. Philosophy: Its Spirit and Methods.
3. Philosophy, Science, and Religion: How Related?
4. Periods of the History of Philosophy. Primitive Thought.

PART TWO: HISTORY OF ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY. THE PRE-SOCRATIC PERIOD.

5. The Ionian School. The Problem of Change.
6. The Italian School. The Number Theory. Pythagoras.
7. The Eleatic School. The Conception of Being.
8. Leucippus and Democritus, The Atomists; Their Influence.
9. The School of the Sophists. The Greek Clearing Up Period.

PART THREE: THE SOCRATIC PHILOSOPHY.

10. Socrates: His Life, Mission, Methods, and Teachings.
11. The Socratic Schools. The Lesser Socratics.
12. The Systematic Philosophers: (I) Plato (427-347 B.C.).
13. The Disciples of Plato.
14. The Systematic Philosophers: (II) Aristotle.

PART FOUR: POST-SOCRATIC PHILOSOPHY. THE ETHICAL PERIOD.

15. The Skeptics: Pyrrho and Timon of Athens.
16. The Epicureans. Epicurus: Character and Doctrines.
17. The Stoics: Zeno of Citium; Cleanthes; Chryssipus.
18. The New Academy. The Scientific Movement.
19. The Religious Period. Greek Period Among the Romans.
20. Jewish-Alexandrian Philosophy. Religious Eclecticism.
21. Neo-Platonism and Gnosticism.

PART FIVE: HISTORY OF MEDIAEVAL PHILOSOPHY.

22. Transition to Mediaeval Philosophy.
23. Early Christian Philosophy.
24. The Patristic Period. The Age of Augustine.
25. The Scholastic Period. The Schoolmen.
26. Arabian and Jewish Philosophy.
27. Aristotelian Scholasticism, Aquinas, Dun Scotus. William of Occam.
28. Anti-Scholasticism. Roger Bacon.
29. Transition to Modern Philosophy. The Renaissance.
30. Bruno and Campanella. Italian Philosophers of Nature.
31. The Religious Reform. Luther. Zwingli. Boehme.