

084
990

Studies in Philosophy and the History of Philosophy Volume 21

Towards a Christian Philosophy

by Joseph Owens, C.Ss.R.

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA PRESS
Washington, D.C.

Contents

Preface	ix
---------	----

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART ONE

The Nature of Christian Philosophy

1. The Christian Philosophy of Aeterni Patris	63
2. Is Nature Something Complete?	76
3. The Notion of Catholic Philosophy	97
4. The Distinguishing Feature in Catholic Philosophy	119
5. The Objectives of the American Catholic Philosophical Association	137
6. Christian Conscience vs. Aristotelian Right Reason	150

PART TWO

Some Themes in Christian Philosophy

7. God in Philosophy Today	177
8. This Truth Sublime	189
9. "Darkness of Ignorance" in the Most Refined Notion of God	207
10. "Cause of Necessity" in Aquinas's Tertia Via	225
11. The Special Characteristic of the Scotistic Proof that God Exists	250
12. Soul as Agent in Aquinas	266
13. Aquinas on the Inseparability of Soul from Existence	291

Epilogue	307
----------	-----

Index	327
-------	-----