

Contents

Citation Information

Notes on Contributors

Foreword: Problems in Twentieth-Century French Philosophy

Sean Bowden and Mark G.E. Kelly

Introduction: Problematizing Problems

Sean Bowden and Mark G.E. Kelly

1 The Misadventures of the “Problem” in “Philosophy”: From Kant to Deleuze

Giuseppe Bianco

2 Bergson’s Method of Problematisation and the Pursuit of Metaphysical Precision

Craig Lundy

3 An Anti-Positivist Conception of Problems: Deleuze, Bergson and the French Epistemological Tradition

Sean Bowden

4 Cavaillès, Mathematical Problems and Questions

Pierre Cassou-Noguès

5 Lautman on Problems as the Conditions of Existence of Solutions

Simon B. Duffy

6 Simondon on the Notion of the Problem: A Genetic Schema of Individuation

Daniela Voss

7 On the Problem and Mystery of Evil: Marcel’s Existential Dissolution of an Antinomy

Jill Hernandez

8 Towards A Phenomenology of Sagesse: Uncovering the Unique Philosophical Problematic of Pierre Hadot

Matthew Sharpe

9 The Errors of History: Knowledge and Epistemology in Bachelard, Canguilhem and Foucault

Alison Ross

10 Problematizing the Problematic: Foucault and Althusser

Mark G.E. Kelly

11 Foucault, Psychoanalysis, and Critique: Two Aspects of Problematization

Amy Allen

12 Problematization in Foucault's Genealogy and Deleuze's Symptomatology: Or, How to Study Sexuality Without Invoking Oppositions

Colin Koopman

Index