

PSYCHOLOGY AND PHILOSOPHY

INQUIRIES INTO THE SOUL FROM LATE SCHOLASTICISM TO CONTEMPORARY THOUGHT

Edited by

SARA HEINÄMAA

Academy of Finland and University of Helsinki, Finland

and

MARTINA REUTER

Academy of Finland and University of Helsinki, Finland

 Springer

Contents

Introduction	xi
Sara Heinämaa and Martina Reuter
1 Psychology in Philosophy: Historical Perspectives	1
Gary Hatfield
2 Philosophical Psychology in 1500: Erfurt, Padua and Bologna	27
Pekka Kärkkäinen and Henrik Lagerlund
3 The Status of Psychology as Understood by Sixteenth-Century Scholastics	47
Tuomo Aho
4 Cartesian Psychology – Could There Be One?	67
Mikko Yrjönsuuri
5 Imagination and Reason in Spinoza	83
Theo Verbeek
6 Natural Law and the Theory of Moral Obligation	97
Thomas Pink
7 Aspects of Inductivism in Thomas Reid’s Science of the Mind	115
Riku Juti
8 Kant on Consciousness	139
Camilla Serck-Hanssen
9 Physiognomy as Science and Art	159
Martina Reuter

10 Toward the Rebirth of Aristotelian Psychology: Trendelenburg and Brentano 179
Edoardo Fugali

11 The Problem of Mind and Other Minds in William James’s Pragmatism 203
Sami Pihlström

12 Psychology and Metaphysics from Maine de Biran to Bergson 235
Pascal Engel

13 Philosophy, Psychology, Phenomenology 247
Dan Zahavi

14 Phenomenological Responses to Gestalt Psychology 263
Sara Heinämaa

15 Philosophy of Mind with and Against Wittgenstein 285
Frederick Stoutland

Bibliography 307

Author Index 325

Subject Index 329