

A HISTORY of AMERICAN POLITICAL THOUGHT

FROM THE CIVIL WAR
TO THE WORLD WAR

BY
EDWARD R. LEWIS

NEW YORK
THE MACMILLAN COMPANY
1937

CONTENTS

CHAPTER		PAGE
I THE WAR AMENDMENTS AND THE NATIONALIZATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS		I
The Thirteenth Amendment—National Protection of Freedom		2
The Fourteenth Amendment—National Protection of Civil Rights		12
The Civil Rights Act of 1866		12
The Adoption of the Fourteenth Amendment		13
The Fifteenth Amendment—National Protection of the Suffrage		31
II THE POWER OF THE COURTS OVER LEGISLATION		49
The Civil Rights Acts		50
The Development of the Thirteenth Amendment		54
The Scope of the Fifteenth Amendment		57
The Development of the Fourteenth Amendment—Due Process and Equal Laws under National Protection		62
The Meaning of its Provisions in 1866—Equal Laws		62
Privileges and Immunities		62
The Meaning of Due Process in 1866		63
Cases under the Civil Rights Acts		69
Unequal Laws		74
Procedure		76
The Fourteenth Amendment and the Regulation of Rates, Taxation, and Legislation under the Police Power		79
The Regulation of Public Utilities		85
Due Process and Taxation		90
The Control of the Police Power		93
III THE OPPOSITION TO THE POLITICAL POWER OF THE COURTS		109
The Tests of Due Process of Law		109
The McCordle Case		116
The Legal Tender Cases		119
The Income Tax Case		120
The Recall of Judicial Decisions		123
IV THE NATURE OF THE UNION		145
The End of the Secession Argument		145
The Theory of Reconstruction		157
V THE NATURE OF THE STATE AND SOVEREIGNTY		176

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
VI THE NATURE AND SOURCE OF LAW	209
VII THE THEORY OF POLITICAL ACTION, 1865-1896	232
Aid to Industry	232
The Philosophy of Labor	253
Grangerism	263
Greenbackism	267
Henry George	273
Edward Bellamy	283
Populism and Free Silver	291
VIII THE THEORY OF POLITICAL ACTION, 1896-1917—THE PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENT	308
The Control of the Railroads; The Interstate Commerce Act of 1887	310
The First Attack on the Trusts	314
William J. Bryan	319
Theodore Roosevelt and the Roosevelt Era	323
J. Allen Smith, Croly and Weyl	334
Robert M. La Follette	341
1912—The Great Progressive Year	344
Woodrow Wilson	349
Prohibition	357
Appraisal of the Progressive Movement	361
IX CONSERVATISM	370
The Line of Division between Conservatism and Progressivism in 1917	382
X SOCIALISTIC THOUGHT	385
XI NATIONALISM AND STATE RIGHTS	414
XII THE STRUGGLE FOR POLITICAL CONTROL	437
Civil Service Reform	440
The Direct Election of Senators	442
The Direct Primary	448
The Initiative, Referendum and Recall	457
Executive Leadership and the Short Ballot	470
Regulation by Commissions	494
Woman's Suffrage	497
Resume of the Struggle for Political Control	504
XIII THE TESTS OF POLITICAL ACTION	510
TABLE OF CASES	537
INDEX	543