

A HISTORY OF ARGENTINE POLITICAL THOUGHT

JOSÉ LUIS ROMERO

Introduction and translation by
THOMAS F. MCGANN

STANFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
STANFORD, CALIFORNIA
1963

CONTENTS

Introduction, by Thomas F. McGann	vii
Foreword, by José Luis Romero	3
Part One: THE COLONIAL ERA	7
I. The Hapsburg Epoch: The Shape of the Authoritarian Spirit	9
II. The Bourbon Epoch: The Shape of the Liberal Spirit	36
Part Two: THE CREOLE ERA	59
III. The Course of Doctrinaire Democracy: The Diffusion and Crisis of Liberalism and Centralism	61
IV. The Course of Inorganic Democracy: The Growth and Triumph of Authoritarianism and Federalism	95
V. The Concept of Conciliation and the Organization of the Nation	126
Part Three: THE ALLUVIAL ERA	165
VI. Argentina in the Alluvial Era	167
VII. The Course of Conservative Liberalism	183
VIII. The Course of Popular Democracy	205
IX. The Course of Fascism	227
Bibliography and Selected Readings	257
Glossary	263
Index	265