

AFRICAN POLITICAL THOUGHT

Guy Martin

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
List of Acronyms	xi
Introduction:
African Political Thought from Antiquity to the Present	1
1 The Political Ideology of Indigenous African Political Systems and Institutions from Antiquity to the Nineteenth Century	11
2 The Influence of Islamic Values and Ideas on Indigenous African Political Systems and Institutions from the Tenth to the Nineteenth Century	21
3 African Theories and Ideologies of Westernization, Modernization, and Liberal Democracy from Early West African Nationalism to Humanism	43
4 Pan-Africanism and African Unity: From Ideal to Practice	55
5 The Socialist-Populist Ideology I: From Patrice Lumumba to Samora Machel	71
6 The Socialist-Populist Ideology II: From Kwame Nkrumah to Julius Nyerere	85
7 The Populist-Socialist Ideology: From Frantz Fanon to Steve Biko	105
8 The Africanist-Populist Ideology: Popular Democracy and Development in Africa	129
Conclusion:
The Transformative Power of Ideas and Values: Toward Peace, Development, and Democracy in Africa	153
Notes	159
Bibliography	187
Index	213