

Contents

Acknowledgements—x

0 Preface—1

This Book is Selective (2) • This Book is Biased (4) • Concepts of Liberty (6)
• Boundary Problems, Exclusion, and Sexist Language? (14) • The Reality of Collectives (22) • In a Word or Two... (27) • A Note on the Text (29) • Notes (30)

1 The Dawn of History—35

Early Man (35) • Anthropology (44) • Man and Language (50) • The Agricultural Revolution (53) • From Village to City: The Urban Revolution (61) • City State and Territorial State (65) • Violence and Predation (67) • Kings (74) • Law (76)
• Notes (78)

2 The Sophists and the *Polis—89

The Polis (90) • Sophists (95) • Law and Nature: Nomos and Phusis (99) • Some Individual Sophists (102) • Notes (107)

3 Plato—110

The Republic (113) • The Statesman and the Laws (122) • Notes (129)

4 Aristotle—130

Aristotle versus Plato (131) • Politics (134) • Aristotle on Slavery (135) • The Household and Wealth (137) • Back to the Polis (138) • Rule by Men or Rule by Laws? (143) • Revolution (145) • Oligarchy versus Democracy (146) • Notes
(147)

5 Slavery—149

Slavery in Greece and Rome (151) • Expressions of Disquiet (154) • Slavery in Plato and Aristotle (155) • The Stoics and Slavery (158) • Slavery among the Hebrews (159) • Slavery among the Christians (160) • Notes (165)

6 From Antipolis to Cosmopolis—167

Epicureans (169) • Cynics (170) • Sceptics (171) • Stoics (172) • Cicero (174)
• The Roman Jurisconsults (181) • Notes (183)

7 Christianity—185

The Impact of Christianity (187) • Scriptural Interpretation (192) • Old Testament
(194) • New Testament (198) • Two Chapters 13: Revelation and Romans (201)
• Notes (209)

8 Augustine—213

The City of God (214) • Augustine on Man (218) • Augustine on History (220)
• Augustine on Slavery (221) • Are Rulers on a Par with Robbers and Pirates? (222) • Notes (228)

9 After Rome—230

The Early Church and Politics (235) • Natural Law (238) • Slavery, Coercive Government and Property (239) • Authority and Justice (241) • Notes (244)

10 Gown and Town—247

The University (250) • Stadtluft macht frei—the Free Air of the City (255)
• Feudalism (263) • Law and Kingship (268) • John of Salisbury (279) • Notes (282)

11 Thomas Aquinas—289

Law (290) • Augustine and Aristotle—from Law to Politics (294) • The Political Community (297) • Contract? (302) • Sacerdotium and Regnum (303) • Tyranny (303) • Self-defence and Homicide (307) • Slavery, Property, Usury and Trade (308) • Notes (312)

12 Marsilius of Padua—Intimations of Modernity—315

Emperor versus Pope (318) • Marsilius's Authorities (320) • A Life of Sufficiency (321) • Law (323) • Vox populi (326) • Only One Prince.... (330) • Notes (332)

13 Niccolò Machiavelli—335

Was Machiavelli a Christian? (337) • Was Machiavelli an Aristotelian? (338)
• Was Machiavelli Machiavellian? (340) • Reasons of State (342) • Mirror of Princes (343) • Machiavelli's View of Man (344) • Notes (346)

14 The Reformation—348

Wycliffe (351) • Luther (354) • The Radical Reformers (358) • Calvin (360)
• Private Resistance (364) • Vindiciae, contra Tyrannos (368) • The Franco-Gallia and the Réveille Matin (369) • Theodore Beza (370) • George Buchanan (371) • A Catholic Aside: Juan de Mariana and Étienne de la Boétie (373)
• Returning to the Huguenots (377) • Notes (379)

15 Jean Bodin: Apostle of Sovereignty—383

Sovereignty (386) • The State and Government (389) • Freedom and Property (393) • Taxation (395) • A Right to Resist? (395) • Notes (396)

16 The Road not Taken: Johannes Althusius—397

Althusius—Federalist? (399) • Consociation (400) • The Family (402) • The Collegium (403) • The City (Community) (403) • The Province, the Commonwealth or Realm and Sovereignty (404) • Notes (410)

- 17 Hugo Grotius—411
International Relations and War (412) • Contract (415) • Ius Naturale and Ius Gentium (416) • Rationalism and Certainty (419) • Sovereignty (421) • Notes (423)
- 18 Leviathan—that Mortal God: Thomas Hobbes—424
Hobbes on Man and the State of Nature (426) • Out of the State of Nature (430)
• Personation and the Sovereign (432) • Notes (440)
- 19 The English Revolution—442
Levellers (443) • Diggers (452) • Killing Noe Murder (458) • James Harrington (460) • Sir Robert Filmer (463) • Notes (466)
- 20 John Locke—470
Locke on Man in the State of Nature (471) • Property (473) • An Aside on Body-Part Cannibalism (481) • Government and Consent (486) • Notes (493)
- 21 Jean-Jacques Rousseau—495
The Discourses (498) • The Social Contract and the General Will (504) • Freedom (508) • Sovereign, Government and Religion (511) • Rousseau: Proto-Totalitarian? (512) • Notes (513)
- 22 Politics Naturalised: David Hume—515
Reason and Human Nature (516) • The Conventions of Property and Justice (519)
• Government as the Guardian of Justice (525) • Contract? (527) • Conclusion (531) • Notes (534)
- 23 Kant: Freedom, Property and the State—536
Freedom, Equality and Independence (538) • Kant and Hobbes (540) • Possession and Ownership (542) • The State (546) • International Relations (550)
• Conclusion (550) • Notes (551)
- 24 Edmund Burke—554
A Vindication of Natural Society (555) • Burke and Society (562) • The British Constitution (564) • Burke on Manners and Prejudice (565) • Burke and Rousseau (566) • Burke—Defender of Liberty? (567) • Burke's Primeval Contract (569) • Notes (572)
- 25 Hegel: Transcendent Genius or Clumsy Charlatan?—574
Hegel the Liberal? (575) • Freedom and The Philosophy of Right (577) • Natural Freedom (578) • Ethical Freedom (582) • Civil Freedom (583) • State Freedom (587) • Notes (594)

26 John Stuart Mill—597

On Liberty (598) • Was Mill a Utilitarian? (601) • One Very Simple Principle? (603) • Considerations on Representative Government (609) • Mill—Libertarian? (613) • Notes (616)

27 Back to the Future: Karl Marx—617

Marx's Writings (621) • The Alien World of Marxist Alienation (623) • The Evil of Exploitation (626) • Hunter, Fisherman, Shepherd, Critic (629) • Class Struggle, Capitalism, Labour and Exploitation. (633) • Politics and Economics (636) • Exploitation Again and The Labour Theory of Value (637) • Critique of the Gotha Programme (644) • The Real Class Struggle (645) • Where Are We Now? Terry Eagleton's Apology for Marx (648) • Notes (653)

28 The Anarchist Prophets—659

I: What is Anarchism? (659) • II: William Godwin (665) • The First Philosophical Anarchist? (666) • Godwin's Ethics (667) • Godwin on Liberty of the Press (669) • Godwin and Government (669) • Property (674) • III: Max Stirner (677) • Stirner the Anti-Rationalist (677) • Stirner on 'Ownness', Altruism and Duties (679) • Stirner on Property (679) • Notes (680)

29 The Classical Anarchists—683

I: Pierre-Joseph Proudhon (683) • Proudhon—What is Property? (683) • Proudhon and the Revolution (685) • Proudhon and Order (686) • Proudhon and Mutualism (686) • II: Mikhail Bakunin (689) • Adventures of a Would-be Revolutionary (691) • Bakunin on the State and Authority (695) • Bakunin and Marx (697) • III: Pyotr Kropotkin: (699) • Kropotkin, the Early Anarchist Years (700) • Kropotkin—The State and Mutual Aid (701) • Kropotkin and Anarcho-Communism (702) • IV: Anarcho-Syndicalism (707) • Notes (708)

30 The Anglophone Anarchists—710

I: Josiah Warren (710) • Warren the Extreme Individualist (711) • Warren on the State (713) • II: Lysander Spooner (714) • Spooner on Justice and Rights (715) • Spooner on Law and Morality (716) • Spooner on Government and Consent (717) • III: Benjamin Tucker (721) • Liberty (721) • Tucker the Stirnerite (721) • Tucker on Property (724) • Tucker on the State (726) • IV: The English Individualists (729) • Auberon Herbert (730) • Herbert, Adherent of Natural Rights and Defender of Property (731) • Notes (735)

31 Twentieth-Century Tribalisms—737

'The Colonel's Lady an' Judy O'Grady are Sisters under their Skins' (738) • Irrationalism—the Philosophy of Fascism (741) • Transcendence (745) • Tribalism (753) • The US Fascist Experience (756) • Totalitarianism (765) • A Note on Anti-Semitism and Eugenicism (768) • Fascism, National Socialism and Bolshevism—Children of the Left (770) • Notes (776)

32 War—781

War and Human Nature (783) • War and the State (790) • War and the Rise of the Modern State (792) • War—Tax and Bureaucracy (795) • War and the State in the USA (799) • War and the Totalitarian State (810) • Notes (813)

33 Rand, Hayek, Nozick, Rothbard and Rawls—817

I: Ayn Rand (817) • Rand and her Inspirations (819) • Rand's Political Philosophy (820) • II: Friedrich Hayek (824) • Order and Design, Law and Legislation (825) • Liberty and Coercion (825) • Rothbard's Critique of Hayek on Coercion (828) • III: Robert Nozick (831) • Anarchy, State and Utopia (833) • IV: Murray Rothbard (840) • Rothbard on Zero-Aggression (840) • Rothbard on Human Nature (841) • Liberty and Power (843) • The State and Society (844) • V: John Rawls (846) • A Theory of Justice (847) • Two Principles of Justice (849) • Rand's Critique of Rawls (851) • Accommodating Different Conceptions of the Good (852) • The Law of Peoples (853) • Notes (854)

34 A Valediction—858

Why Not Let the Dead Bury the Dead? (858) • Aids to Freedom (860) • A Few Last Words on Liberty (862) • Social Capitalism (868) • Notes (873)

Bibliography—875

Index—947